EVANS SCHOLARS FOUNDATION

2019 Program Overview

Sending caddies to college since 1930

The Evans Scholars Foundation awards full tuition and housing college scholarships to high-achieving caddies with limited financial means. Established in 1930 by the Western Golf Association and celebrated amateur golfer Charles "Chick" Evans Jr., the Foundation oversees the nation's largest scholarship program for caddies. Evans Scholars are enrolled at 18 leading universities nationwide, including 17 where the Foundation operates a Scholarship House.

A mission that's more important than ever

With more families struggling to pay for college and a record number of caddies applying for the Evans Scholarship each year, the Evans Scholars Program is expanding from coast to coast. Today, the Foundation is supported by more than 32,500 Par Club donors and proceeds from the WGA-run BMW Championship, a PGA TOUR FedExCup playoff event.
